

Assumptions:

A street can be a part of multiple authorities

A property can be on more than one street (eg corner)

A contract is unique to the one authority that signs it

Authorities are implementing this new program thus might not yet have contracts in place.

One street might have no properties if just created.